Policy Statement on the Recruitment of ex-Offenders

1. As an organisation assessing applicants' suitability for positions which are included in the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order using criminal record checks processed through the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS), we comply fully with the code of practice and undertakes to treat all applicants for positions fairly
2. We undertake not to discriminate unfairly against any subject of a criminal record check on the basis of a conviction or other information revealed
3. We can only ask an individual to provide details of convictions and cautions that we are legally entitled to know about. Where a DBS certificate at either standard or enhanced level can legally be requested (where the position is one that is included in the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 as amended, and where appropriate Police Act Regulations as amended)
4. We can only ask an individual about convictions and cautions that are not protected
5. We are committed to the fair treatment of its staff, potential staff or users of its services, regardless of race, gender, religion, sexual orientation, responsibilities for dependants, age, physical/mental disability or offending background
6. This written policy statement on the recruitment of ex-offenders, is made available to all DBS applicants at the start of the recruitment process
7. We actively promote equality of opportunity for all with the right mix of talent, skills and potential and welcome applications from a wide range of candidates, including those with criminal records
8. We select all candidates for interview based on their skills, qualifications and experience
9. An application for a criminal record check is only submitted to DBS after a thorough risk assessment has indicated that one is both proportionate and relevant to the position concerned. For those positions where a criminal record check is identified as necessary, application forms, job adverts and recruitment briefs will contain a statement that an application for a DBS certificate will be submitted in the event of the individual being offered the position

10. We ensure that all those in The Church of the Good Shepherd, Carshalton who are involved in the recruitment process have been suitably trained to identify and assess the relevance and circumstances of offences
11. We also ensure that they have received appropriate guidance and training in the relevant legislation relating to the employment of ex-offenders, e.g. the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974
12. At interview, or in a separate discussion, we ensure that an open and measured discussion takes place on the subject of any offences or other matter that might be relevant to the position. Failure to reveal information that is directly relevant to the position sought could lead to withdrawal of an offer of employment
13. We make every subject of a criminal record check submitted to DBS aware of the existence of the code of practice and makes a copy available on request
14. We undertake to discuss any matter revealed on a DBS certificate with the individual seeking the position before withdrawing a conditional offer of employment.
15. Only the number and date of the DBS certificate will be retained on a password encrypted database to which only the Parish Safeguarding Officer and Parish DBS Administrator have access.
